HISTORIAN: Mr Schlicht received an inquiry regarding the Merrill farm. They believe that the cemetery on Schlicht Road should be called the Merrill Cemetery.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY: Ms. Beglinger also received a call from Tom Merrill, an ancestor of David Merrill, a Revolutionary War soldier. This inquiry led to some interesting findings: David was buried in the Schlicht Road cemetery, then known as the Merrill Cemetery, along with other Merrill family members. At some point, the name changed to the Stockham Hill Cemetery. Strangely, there are no Stockham's buried there, but about 13 Stockhams are buried in the Cole-Grove, Bodfish Cemetery located on Vincent Corners Road. Eventually, three Merrill graves were moved to the Fabius Evergreen Cemetery, section I.
